

Beautiful

Verse 1

Dawn has broken, morning has begun
Welcoming the rising of the sun
Peeking through the curtains, a gentle kiss of light
Finds my wife still clinging to the night

Verse 2

When she wakes, she greets me a smile
And that alone makes my day worthwhile
A way to say she loves me, a way to say she's mine
A way to say our hearts are intertwined

Chorus

She's beautiful to me, yes beautiful
Softer than a summer's gentle breeze
She's beautiful to me, yes beautiful
She's always been the woman of my dreams

Verse 3

Every time she walks into a room
It comes to life like daffodils in bloom
Her laughter dances freely, a melody so sweet
A voice that makes my heart skip a beat

Verse 4

She's always been my refuge and my rock
A haven in the tempest, my dock
When waves crash all around me and thunder starts to roll
Her calm provides an anchor for my soul

Chorus

Bridge (instrumental)

Chorus

The woman of my dreams, she's beautiful

Words and Music by Bernard Leclerc
© September, 2024