

Call My Name

Just call my name
And I'll send my love from heaven
And if I can I'll lend a helping hand

While I don't guarantee that I can help you
I promise I will listen to your prayers
Like golden bowls of incense offered up to heaven's throne
I'll entrust them to the Father's care

Just call my name
And I'll send my love from heaven
And if I can I'll lend a helping hand

But lest I fail to carry out my promise
I first must go before the perfect Lamb
So pray for me as I for you
That He should be so kind
To let me pass the last of all exams

Just call my name
And I'll send my love from heaven
And if I can I'll lend a helping hand
So just call my name
