

Tic Toc

Tic, toc, the clock has stopped
A moment set in time
As if to mark a brand new start
Of a life much more sublime

Tic, toc, the pain has gone
Restless nights are over
Peace has finally come your way
Beginning with today

If I could climb up to Heaven
If only for awhile
I'd peak inside the pearly gates
To catch your glowing smile

If I could climb up to Heaven
I'd stand outside its door
Just in case they'd let me in
To hold you close once more

Tic, toc, you've paid your dues
You've earned your just reward
For all the trials that you've been through
You're surely with the Lord
Yes, you're surely with Lord

Words and Music by Bernard Leclerc
© April, 2022