

Isabella

Verse 1

I once met a girl named Isabella
A belle Québécoise from French Canada
We got along great so we started to date
And soon became soulmates

Verse 2

She spoke in français and I in anglais
Sometimes we misunderstood what was said
But never a day was there we wouldn't say
These words that went this way

Chorus

La vie vaut la peine d'être vécue
Life's worth the pain of living
No matter what happens, whatever we do
Love will see us through

Verse 3

I woke up one morning with her by my side
And she wasn't moving; twas not a good sign
I called 911 and as you might guess
She lay in heavenly rest

Chorus

La vie vaut la peine d'être vécue
Life's worth the pain of living
No matter what happens, whatever we do
Love will see us through

Bridge

Isabella
Can you hear my cry
Isabella
Why couldn't it have been I

Instrumental of Verses

Chorus

La vie vaut la peine d'être vécue
Life's worth the pain of living
No matter what happens, whatever we do
Love will see us through

Isabella I love you

Isabella is an Italian and Spanish variation of Elizabeth, which comes from the Hebrew name Elisheba, meaning "devoted to God" or "God is my oath."
