

Apple of His Eye

Verse 1

I had an aunt Regina and an uncle named Gerard.
They lived two houses up the street, so they weren't very far.
I saw them on their porch outside one evening in July
So I went on up to say hello and to sit and chat a while.

Verse 2

I asked them both a question regarding man and wife
And why they chose each other to settle down with for life.
Regina's answer startled me. She said, 'cause he was a nice guy.
But my uncle spoke more lovingly. She was the apple of his eye.

Chorus

The apple of his eye, he said
The woman of his dreams
The apple of his eye, he said
She was his fantasy

Verse 3

I've always felt my uncle somewhat got the shaft
That the unrequited love he gave never met its match.
But who am I to judge someone in a matter of the heart
The fact remains he never complained and never did they part.

Chorus 2x

The apple of his eye, he said
The woman of his dreams
The apple of his eye, he said
She was his fantasy
