

Absolute Devotion

Verse 1

The coffee's hot, my hands are cold, a smile upon your face
The sound of silence fills the air in this warm and cozy space
You're the flame that lights my fire, the answer to my call
The one I've long desired, your look just says it all

Chorus

You have my absolute devotion
As vast and deep as all the seven seas
You have my absolute devotion
No passing whim nor tide that turns and leaves

Verse 2

Now every dawn holds purpose, a reason to be strong
A home with you beside me, a place where I belong
My world once lacked in color, now it's bold and bright
You've painted dreams and filled my soul with limitless delight

Chorus

You have my absolute devotion
As vast and deep as all the seven seas
You have my absolute devotion
No passing whim nor tide that turns and leaves

Bridge

I'm so absolutely lucky to have met someone like you
A kind of love that I had never known
An unexpected treasure, both beautiful and true
You've become my rock, my strength, and cornerstone

Chorus

You have my absolute devotion
As vast and deep as all the seven seas
You have my absolute devotion
No passing whim nor tide that turns and leaves
An absolute devotion that won't leave
