

Only the Lovers Sing

Verse 1

When two hearts unite their spirits take flight
Ignited by love's fantasy
They're blinded by light, no one else in their sight
Their ears hear a sweet melody

Chorus

Only the lovers sing
And fear not a single thing
They feel they can fly like a bird in the sky
Only the lovers sing

Verse 2

Their feelings are new and forever will view
The world as a soft serenade
With hopeful romance they continue their dance
On promises to each they have made

Chorus

Verse 3

But shadows may loom and darken the room
With whispering doubts in the air
If they hold to their vow with the faith they espoused
Their love they will bravely repair

Chorus

Instrumental Break

Chorus

Words and Music by Bernard Leclerc
© June 21, 2025